

WHAT IS THE

DEC APPROACH?

It's NADEC's research-backed and trauma-informed approach to identifying and intervening on behalf of drug-endangered children.

The DEC Approach is a multidisciplinary strategy to change the trajectory of a drug-endangered child's life.

It recognizes that a common vision, ongoing collaboration and ongoing change increases the likelihood for better outcomes for drug endangered children.

